

Clinician-Scientists Transdisciplinary Aging Research (Clin-STAR) Coordinating Center

A National Platform for Clinicians Focusing their Careers on Aging Research in Order to Improve Patient-Centered Care for Older Adults across Specialties and Disciplines

Clin-STAR initiatives are open to all clinical disciplines, specialty and subspecialty fields, and for all career levels.

Clin-STAR opportunities include:

- Clin-STAR Database, a free search tool for transdisciplinary researchers across disciplines and specialties doing aging research--browse information on researchers and their institutions, publications, grants, and interactive graphics displaying connections by disciplines, publications, and research areas.
- Mini-Sabbatical Awards \(up to \$4000\): Funds for short-term, immersive, learning experiences.
- Visiting Professor Travel Fund \(up to \$3000\): Bring a visiting professor to your institution to expose clinician-scientists to aging research (eg, grand rounds, mentoring trainees, interactive clinical rounds, interest group).
- Distinguished Professorship-Specialty Societies \(up to \$5000\): Invite a researcher in geriatrics/gerontology to speak at a specialty or subspecialty professional conference. Other activities could include moderating poster paper sessions, conducting mentoring sessions for ESIs, meeting with a Geriatrics SIG, or the Society's leadership/council.
- Early Career Lecture Fund \(up to \$1500\): Travel funds for early career clinician-scientists to present aging-related research at an annual scientific or medical specialty association meeting where aging-related research is not the primary focus.

Other initiatives include:

- Special Interest Groups
- Mentoring Office Hours
- Career and Research Short-Term Mentoring/Advising Opportunities
- Transdisciplinary Aging Research Pilot/Planning Grants
- Webinars
- DEIA Initiatives
- Funding, Research, and Career Development Resources

Join the Clin-STAR Coordinating Center mailing list for updates.