

Using the NIA Health Disparities Framework to Optimize Equity in Aging Research

WHEN: Friday, May 21, 2021
1:00PM-2:30PM EST

REGISTER HERE

AGENDA:

1:00-1:45 Introduction to the NIA Health Disparities Framework
and its use in aging research

1:45-2:05 Case study presentations

A patient-centered approach to address racial/ethnic disparities in pathways to dementia diagnosis –
Dr. Hanzhang Xu, PhD, RN

Leveraging personal meaning for increasing physical mobility in older adults with osteoarthritis pain –
Dr. Jennifer Plumb-Villardaga, PhD

2:05-2:15 Reflections from Dr. Jones and panelists

2:15-2:30 Q&A

Funded by:
NIA 5P30-AG028716-15
NIMHD U54MD012530
NIA 1P30AG064201-01

Patricia Jones, DrPH, MPH, MS
Director, Office of Special
Populations (OSP)
National Institute on Aging

Tyson Brown, PhD – Panelist
Director, Center on Health
& Society (CHS)
Associate Professor in Sociology
Duke University

Kimberly Johnson, MD – Panelist
Director, REACH Equity
Professor in Medicine
Duke University