ORGANIZED BY: Igor Akushevich (Duke University), Carl V. Hill (Alzheimer's Association)

Join us for the workshop series aimed to improve the understanding of how existing analytic methods and data can be leveraged to make progress in understanding the causes and mechanisms of health-related disparities in Alzheimer's Disease, related dementias and other prominent age-related diseases. Topics will be organized around the NIA/NIH and Alzheimer's Association's vision of future perspectives in ageing research including a range of academic topics such as:

- Advanced analytic methods
- Disparities in health outcomes
- Perspectives in health disparities research

OPENING REMARKS:

Yaakov Stern, Columbia University
Anatoliy Yashin, Duke University
Heather Whitson, Duke University School of Medicine
Brad Hammill, Duke University School of Medicine
Maria Carrillo, Alzheimer's Association

SESSION CHAIRS:

Eric Stallard, Duke University
